Sanctioning Packet

I. SANCTIONING

Please review this packet and call the Georgia Barbecue Association (GBA) Director of Competitions (Danny Meadows at 404-831-1479) to discuss your interest in having the GBA Officially Sanction a Barbecue Contest that you plan to hold. These guidelines must be followed when planning to make an application for GBA sanctioning. The application will be sent to you by the Director of Competitions or, if you are an existing competition, your Lead Rep.

1. The contest organizer must sign and return the application, which acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to the commitments they are making in this document by applying to the GBA to sanction their contest. If no contest organizer is designated at the time the application is submitted, the contest sponsor will be the contest organizer.
2. The contest sponsor and/or contest organizer should apply for sanctioning to the GBA a minimum of six (6) months prior to the proposed date of the contest. Every effort will be made to accommodate sanctioning applications made less than 6 months prior to the event but cannot be guaranteed.
3. A $400.00 sanctioning fee must be included with every application for sanctioning. The sanctioning fee for a first time contest is discounted to $200. After a completed contest, the GBA will hold the weekend of the contest the next year for 90 days. This will allow the contest to keep the same weekend next year by submitting their application and a $400 sanctioning fee. Once 90 days from the previous contest date has passed that date is available for any contest organizer to request.
4. When making application for sanctioning, the contest sponsor and contest organizer agree to follow all GBA rules, regulations, and judging procedures.
5. Upon approval, the contest sponsor and contest organizer agree to follow all GBA sanctioning requirements, including payment of all fees/expenses and prize money as outlined in Section III.
6. First year contests and returning contests that have moved to a new location are required to have the contest area inspected by up to two (2) GBA officials and pay their required mileage prior to the contest.

7. The GBA reserves the right to require returning contests using the same location to have the contest area inspected by up to two (2) GBA officials prior to the contest and agree to necessary changes based on previous experience.
8. The date of the Georgia Barbecue Association Championship will not be available for any other GBA Sanctioned contest.
9. The GBA will make every effort to accommodate the contest date requested by the contest organizer. When sanctioning contest dates, the GBA will consider a variety of factors to assure that the Contest and the cook teams both have a positive experience. Those factors will include but not be limited to; locations of other cook-offs (GBA and Non-GBA) on the same date and how the requested contest date fits into the GBA calendar. Sanctioned GBA Pro Contests scheduled on the same date must be a minimum of 100 driving miles apart and approved by the GBA.

of “a first year contest” is a contest that has never been sanctioned by the GBA in the past. At the discretion of the GBA President, a contest that has some history but has not been held for over a year or has a new organizer may be considered a “first time contest”. Any contest that has been a GBA contest in the past, took one or more years off, and has already received its first-time sanctioning fee exemption is not eligible for a second first time reduced sanctioning fee.

2. The contest is responsible for making arrangements for and covering the cost of local motel rooms for all GBA Officials associated with the contest. The contest organizer should arrange rooms for two (2) nights for each assigned GBA representative. GBA representatives do not always stay both nights, but they are to have that option. Rooms are to be arranged by the contest organizer, but they will be allocated to GBA Officials by the lead contest representative. Rooms may be required Thursday, Friday and/or Saturday nights

Contests require a possible total of 10 room nights for contests of up to thirty nine (39) teams. Additional representatives may be added as the size or scope of the contest increases and the contest organizer will be responsible for adding up to two additional room nights for each additional GBA representative.

It is likely that the GBA will not use all of the potential allocated rooms. The room details will be settled at least one week before the contest.

3. The standard sanctioning fees and number of designated GBA representatives for contests that have thirty nine (39) or fewer paid teams at the cook’s meeting are as follows:

For events with more than thirty nine (39) teams, additional sanctioning fees and designated representatives will be added as indicated in the chart below. If a contest has more than 69 teams we will follow the pattern below to determine the necessary GBA Staff support and additional sanctioning fees.

Number of Teams	Total Number of Representatives	Additional Sanctioning Fee	Total Sanctioning Fee
Less than 40	5 (Standard)	$0.00	$400.00
40 - 49	6	$100.00	$500.00
50 - 59	7	$200.00	$600.00
60 - 69	8	$300.00	$700.00

Note – At this time, for contests inside of the State of Georgia, the GBA does not expect the contest to pay mileage, any type of per-diem or meal stipend for GBA officials. The GBA reserves the right to negotiate payment of additional expenses for contests scheduled to be held outside of Georgia. Payment of any additional fees and expenses may be negotiated in advance by the prospective contest organizer and the current president of the GBA.

5. In the event of contest cancellation by the contest organizer(s), all paid fees and expenses shall be non-refundable.
6. In the event that the GBA withdraws it's sanctioning of the contest; previously paid sanctioning fees will be refunded within ten (10) working days.

The contest organizer, officially representing the sponsoring organization, agrees to hold the Georgia Barbecue Association, Inc., its board of directors, officers, volunteers and their assigns harmless from any and all claims, suits or proceedings of any kind which may be brought against them on account of any injuries to person or property received during or related to the above-described event.
